

Proverbs 24:30-34

Proverbs 24:30-34, NASB

Melissa Smith

♩ = 138

B C F C

I passed by the field of the slug-gard And by the vine-yard of the man lack-ing sense

6 G⁷ d C D

And be-hold, It was com-plete-ly o-ver-grown with this-tles. Its sur-face was cov-ered with net-tles. And its stone wall was bro-ken down. When I saw, I re-lect-ed up-on it;

10 G C D G⁷ C F

15 C G C F C

I looked and re-ceived in-struc-tion. "A lit-tle sleep, a lit-tle slum-ber, A lit-tle fold-ing of the hands to rest," Then your pov-er-ty will come as a rob-ber And your want like an armed man. Prov-erbs twen - ty - four, thir - ty through thir - ty - four.

20 G C F C G

25 C G C