As you read, add verses and/or references to the topical pages, lists and charts in your notebook.

This chapter includes many similes. A simile uses like or as to compare two different things. Here's an example: "Like a bad tooth and an unsteady foot is confidence in a faithless man in time of trouble." (25:19, NASB) What does this tell us about placing our confidence in someone who can't be trusted?

Find another simile in this chapter. Write it here and explain what it means.
